Statement from Acting OMB Director Robert Fairweather

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Economic Relief Related to the COVID-19 Pandemic”

This executive order directs the use of the full resources of the Federal Government to address the economic crisis resulting from the COVID-19 pandemic. Implementing this executive order would have de minimis impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of this executive order include providing relief to individuals, families, and small businesses; as well as State, local, Tribal, and territorial governments that have been impacted by the economic crisis resulting from the pandemic. Implementing this executive order would have de minimis impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-year fiscal period beginning in fiscal year 2021. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order include all executive departments and agencies.
