

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20503

February 2, 2021

Statement from Acting OMB Director Robert Fairweather

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Establishment of Interagency Task Force on the Reunification of Families”

This executive order establishes an Interagency Task Force on the Reunification of Families which will identify all minor children who were separated from their parents or legal guardians at the United States-Mexico border between January 20, 2017, and January 20, 2021; facilitate the reunification of each of the identified children with their families; and provide regular reports to the President. Implementing this executive order would have no impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of this executive order include protecting family unity and ensuring that parents entering the United States are not separated from their minor children. Implementing this executive order would have no impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-year fiscal period beginning in fiscal year 2021. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order include the Departments of Homeland Security, State, Health and Human Services, and Justice, and other executive departments and agencies.
