

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20503

February 14, 2021

Statement from Acting OMB Director Robert Fairweather

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Establishment of the White House Office of Faith-Based and Neighborhood Partnerships”

This executive order establishes a White House Office of Faith-Based and Neighborhood Partnerships that will have lead responsibility in the executive branch to establish policies, priorities, and objectives for the Federal Government's comprehensive effort to enlist, equip, enable, empower, and expand the work of community-serving organizations, both faith-based and secular. Implementing this executive order would have no impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of this executive order include better serving people in need through partnerships with civil society, while preserving our fundamental constitutional commitments. Implementing this executive order would have no impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-year fiscal period beginning in fiscal year 2021. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order include all executive departments and agencies.
