Statement from Acting OMB Director Shalanda Young

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Establishment of the Presidential Commission on the Supreme Court of the United States”

This executive order creates a Presidential Commission on the Supreme Court of the United States, to be composed of up to 36 presidentially appointed members and tasked with preparing a report to the President on contemporary views of the Court’s role and operation, as well as proposals for reform. The Commission shall solicit public and expert input in preparing the report. Expenses and resources for the Commission are provided by the Executive Office of the President and the General Services Administration. Implementing this executive order would have no impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of this executive order include providing the President with an expert assessment of the merits and legality of proposals for reform of the Supreme Court. Implementing this executive order would have no impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-year fiscal period beginning in fiscal year 2021. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order include the Executive Office of the President and the General Services Administration.
