Statement from Acting OMB Director Shalanda Young

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “The White House Initiative on Advancing Educational Equity, Excellence, and Economic Opportunity for Native Americans and Strengthening Tribal Colleges and Universities”

This executive order establishes the White House Initiative on Advancing Educational Equity, Excellence, and Economic Opportunity for Native Americans and Strengthening Tribal Colleges and Universities. Implementing this executive order would have no impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of this executive order include improved coordination of Federal policies, programs, and services to advance equity, excellence, and justice in our Nation’s education system, and to further Tribal self-governance, including by supporting activities that will expand educational opportunities and improve educational outcomes for all Native students. Implementing this executive order would have no impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-year fiscal period beginning in fiscal year 2021. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order include the Department of Education, the Bureau of Indian Education, the Administration for Native Americans, and the Indian Health Service.
