

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20503

September 6, 2022

Statement from OMB Director Shalanda Young

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Securing Access to Reproductive and Other Healthcare Services”

This executive order directs further actions to support access to reproductive healthcare services and to address the crisis facing women’s health and public health more broadly. Implementing this executive order would have no impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of this executive order include supporting patients traveling out of state for medical care; ensuring healthcare providers comply with Federal non-discrimination law; and promoting research and data collection on maternal health outcomes. Implementing this executive order would have no impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-year fiscal period beginning in fiscal year 2022. The agency anticipated to be impacted by this executive order includes the Department of Health and Human Services.
