Statement from OMB Director Shalanda Young

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Promoting the Arts, the Humanities, and Museum and Library Services”

This executive order would re-establish the President’s Committee on the Arts and Humanities (PCAH) and articulate Administration policy on Federal support for the arts, humanities, and cultural agencies. Implementing this executive order would have de minimis impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of this executive order include a re-established PCAH with an Executive Director as well as clear policy direction and improved Federal coordination to advance the Administration’s Build Back Better agenda through Federal support for the arts, humanities, museums, and library services. Implementing this executive order would have de minimis impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-year fiscal period beginning in fiscal year 2023. The principal agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order include the National Endowment for the Arts, the National Endowment for the Humanities, and the Institute for Museum and Library Services.
