Statement from OMB Director Shalanda Young

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Strengthening Access to Affordable, High-Quality Contraception and Family Planning Services”

This executive order directs actions to strengthen access to affordable, high-quality contraception and family planning services. Implementing this executive order would have no impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of this executive order include improved access to contraception through private health insurance, Medicaid, Medicare, Federally-funded healthcare centers, and other Federal healthcare programs and relevant human services programs and through public education efforts. Implementing this executive order would have no impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-year fiscal period beginning in fiscal year 2023. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order includes the Department of Health and Human Services, the Department of the Treasury, the Department of Labor, the Department of Defense, the Department of Veterans Affairs, the Department of Education, and the Office of Personnel Management.
