Statement from OMB Director Shalanda Young

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Ordering the Selected Reserve and Certain Members of the Individual Ready Reserve of the Armed Forces to Active Duty”

This executive order authorizes the Secretary of Defense, and the Secretary of Homeland Security with respect to the Coast Guard when it is not operating as a service in the Navy, to involuntarily order to active duty units and individual members of the Reserve component, not to exceed 3,000 total members at any one time, to support Operation Atlantic Resolve. Implementing this executive order would have de minimis impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of this executive order include ensuring sufficient support functions are available for replacing or sustaining rotational forces currently in Europe. Implementing this executive order would have de minimis impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-year fiscal period beginning in fiscal year 2023. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order include the Department of Defense and the Department of Homeland Security.
