Statement from OMB Director Shalanda Young

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Strengthening and Promoting Innovation in the Nation’s Cybersecurity”

This executive order would direct agency actions to strengthen the cybersecurity of Federal systems and software supply chains. Implementing this executive order would have no impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of this executive order include ensuring accountability and transparency for software and cloud service providers, strengthening security of Federal communications and identity management systems, and promoting security and innovation in cybersecurity applications of artificial intelligence. Implementing this executive order would have no impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-year fiscal period beginning in fiscal year 2025. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order include the Departments of the Treasury, Justice, Commerce, Energy, and Homeland Security, the General Services Administration, and the Office of Management and Budget.
